

PERFECT PEDI

Finally, a Dublin nail salon that's as good as anything you'll find in New York, home to the perfect manicure. Mink does everything from a simple mini-manicure to a decadent white chocolate and cranberry pedicure (which includes chocolate dipped strawberries served on the side) with Big Apple elan. It has fab touches like a valet-parking service; while your polish is drying you get a neck and shoulder massage; the custom-designed cream leather pedicure chairs are of the vibrating variety. The salon is dreamily done out in dusk-coloured velvet and the therapists are the among the best Hot Style has had. It opened last month (we, ever the pioneers in the field of beauty and grooming, were the first journalists to visit) and already has a waiting list weeks' long. There are two more Minks opening in Dublin this year and several more are to follow nationwide over the next twelve months. Who needs New York?
